The accompanying copy of letter No. 724, dated the 15th July 1931, from the Consul-General for Belgium to the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department together with copy of its enclosure is published for general information.

Copy of a letter No. 724, dated Calcutta, the 15th July, 1931, from the Consul-General for Belgium at Calcutta to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department, Simla.

As you are aware holders of British Passports are admitted in Belgium without being required that a Belgium Consular visa be obtained on their passports before leaving their usual place of residence.

Owing to the abnormal circumstances arising out of the world economic crisis, it has been deemed necessary to take special measures to prevent the Belgium labour market to be overflooded by foreigners in quest of work.

The rules which have been decided upon are laid down in a Belgium Arrette Royal dated the 15th December 1930, and which has been enforced from the 15th March 1931. A copy is enclosed for your information.

In short the principle is as follows:—No foreigner is admitted in Belgium to work as a manual labourer or as a Clerk or an employee unless he has been granted a previous authorization to the same by the Belgian Ministre de la Justice.
